ON RELIGION AND WAR

HIS FIRST TILT

COPENHAGEN, April 11.—The revolutionary movement in Bavaria has spread to Baden and agitators are working in Karisruhe, Mannheim and other large towns, according to a Karisruhe dispatch to the Acht Uhr Blatt, of Berlin. The agitators are said to be attempting to start a revolution and to proclaim a soviet republic in Baden. They would also unite Baden with the Bavarian soviet government. In a new Spartacan outbreak at Dusseldorf Thursday, 25 persons were killed and 25 wounded when government troops used machine guns on Spartacan demonstrators, the Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin, says.

can demonstrators, the Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin, says.

A crowd of several thousand assembled before Spartacan headquarters in Dusseldorf Thursday afternoon. The police ordered the crowd to disperse whereupon there was some shooting. While soldiers were being brought up the crowd erected barricades in the streets. After the fighting, in which casualties were sustained, the Spartacans fied.

Dusseldorf, the newspaper adds, was in complete darkness last night, the gas and electric works having ceased operations. Trains and street cars stopped running.

Bishop Saphere Friday spoke of the eternal warfare between good and evil and suid, in his opinion, if the Christian people of the world had lived up to their professions of faith, the world war would never have occurred. Now that the war is ending he said the responsibility upon Christianity is even heavier, and his belief is that the Christian nations of the United States and England must work together to save the world now from the fate which will overtake it if the anarchy which has broken out in the far cast is permitted to spread westward. Additional reports to disclose the extent to which the unrest has spread through the entire command were awaited with considerable anxiety. It was recognized by officers that the situation of the American forces in Northern Russia was peculiarly unpleasant. Weather conditions are trying because of the extreme cold: there is little of the dash about the work there that characterized the war in France, and reports from home tell of the return of the army to civil life and of receptions, parades and celebrations of victory. The whole picture is one well calculated, it is said, to make the troops homesick and easy victims of Bolsheviki arguments or agitation in their own ranks.

The units at Archangel are not seasoned regular soldiers. They are selective service men, but in the past they have shown a very high quality of morale, in facing the unpleasant task before them so long without open discontent. Even now, officers argued, the mutinous company probably would show an immediate change of heart the mutinous company probably would show an immediate charge of heart if a general attack on the Bolsheviki if a general attack on the Bolsheviki forces, which are harassing the command, was undertaken.

No uneasiness is feit concerning the American contingent in Siberia, which is largely composed of old-time regular units from the Philippines. The percentage of professional soldiors, it is thought, is so high in Maj-tien. Graves' command that it is highly improbable an agitator could gain a hearing among the men.

C. OF C. TO AID LOCAL CLUBS IN RELIEF WORK

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, at luncheon Friday with Marion Evans, acting president, Rabbi W. H. Fineshriber and Dr. W. D. Buckner, made plans to co-operate with the Nineteenth Century and other women's clubs of the city in canvassing funds for the American Committee for Devastated France.

Comte Wilbur Burt Jarvis, representing the committee, was present and made an address in which he stressed the extreme necessity for the extension of aid by the American people to those French who were made utterly destitute by the German invasion. These people, he said, are without shelter; they have neither seeds nor implements with which to plant a crop, and therefore face starvation, disease and death.

That occasioned the appearance of Mrs. Miller, handsome and stylishly groomed, in court to answer to a charge of violating the liquor law. She was held for the state court.

Mrs. Miller said that the beer was for personal use and had been left there by a friend.

"I placed some on ice," she timidly told the court, "and I intended to drink it whenever if cared for a bottle."

MISSISSIPPI PLANNING BIG FOOD PRODUCTION

Mississippi is failing a has for greater producton of food and feedstuffs and less cotton, according to J. W. Willis, state farm demonstration agent of Mississippi, who was in Memphis Friday from A. and M. college at Starkville. Mississippi is going in heavily this season for live stock, hogs, dairying, sheep and sweet potatoes. The cotton acreage, already greatly reduced as compared to several years ago, will be cut further. Even the delfa is going in for smaller cotton acreage.

Mississippi formerly produced about a million and a half bales of cotton annually, but according to the latest statistics, which were of 1917, the production had been cut to 895,006 bales. Mississippi, Mr. Willis said, has more or less anticipated the cotton reduction campaign.

PARIS, April 11.—At the meeting of the commission on a league of nations, ten sections of the covenant were considered and passed. The Japaness amendment was not reached and the actual text of the section exempting the Monroe doctrins from the provisions of the covenant of the league of nations is not yet available.

American commissioners stated, however, that the doctrine was definitely named in the provision guaranteeing that it will not be affected by the terms in the covenant. Another meeting will be held tonight, when it is hoped that the work will be completed.

The adoption of the section exempting the Monroe doctrine was the only real exemption made during the meeting last night. President Wilson offered the amendment and made a pica for it, saying that he believed the doctrine was protected under the terms of the covenants as they stood, but because of the demands for specific exemption he felt it imperative that the amendment should be added. There was some adverse argument, but the amendment was adopted without prolonged opposition.
